Copilot45

ACCELERATE YOUR AI JOURNEY WITH COPILOT45

Everyone is talking about AI! With rapid advancements and the launch of Microsoft Copilot, it has never been easier for organisations to get started with AI, but getting started is just the beginning.

As recognised experts by Microsoft and part of only a handful of partners across the UK who are both Microsoft Fast Track Ready and a global Microsoft Copilot jumpstart partner. Ingentive is uniquely placed to understand not only the benefits cognitive AI can bring to your organisation, but also the importance in making sure you get it right, first time.

This is why we developed Copilot45. A unique program of AI change and delivery that will get your organisation AI ready in under 45 days. With a mixture of collaborative workshops, interactive sessions and deployment help, wrapped up with full data governance and complemented with adoption and change programs. Copilot45 is your one stop solution for AI readiness.
